Sargent said Phelps was a good and efficient officer, whose removal he could not recommend but if a change was regarded necessary Shannon would command his recommendation

Cole's purpose is supposed to be to secure Shannon's support in the Senatorial contest

The Senate Appropriation Committee withdrew the proposition to substitute the words some portion of the United States on the Pacific coast for the words San Francisco In the China mail subsidy section of the Postal Appropriation bill

Cole says the change was made by the Committee solely to paralyze the phraseology of the bill without any expectation or intention of taking the present steamship service from San Francisco Cole declares he will oppose the bill allowing the Southern Pacific railroad to change their route but keep their present land grant He introduced the bill by request, but upon examination condemns it

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

EASTERN STATES

The Consequential Damages Question

NEW YORK May —The World states that Granville's reply to the American proposition that the British Government would propose to establish the international principle covering the claims of neutrals for consequential damages The proposition of Granville is that the United States Government withdraw their claims for consequential from Great Britain still maintaining the route de provisions of the treaty that in wars whenever one nation is belligerent and another neutral the neutral shall not be held responsible for indirect consequential damages or claims arising in a similar manner under similar circumstances with claims to which the treaty at Washington refers This was a surprise to the President who finding diplomacy had failed outlined to the members of the Congressional Foreign Committee to whom he stated his anxiety to save the treaty but not at the sacrifice of any principle and having failed to obtain such proposal from England as was expected he was in favor of withdrawing Schenck's instructions leaving the whole matter as at first before the Geneva Tribunal The Republican members of the House Committee stated that they thought the question of consequential damages should never have been inserted in our case but it was there and the honor of the nation was thus involved The committee was willing to do anything consistent with their position to strengthen the President.

The President said it was not for him to say what should be the final attitude of the country While recognizing the authority conferred upon himself, he was anxious that the immediate representatives of the people should know the true condition of affairs and he relied on the committee to stand by him in case it became necessary to abandon the treaty

In the course of his remarks as to the extraordinary measure of calling in the committee Secretary Fish said they had not been called on for advice but support

Ambler of Ohio responded by saying that if the support expected was just the Democratic members of the committee should also be enrolled and he (Ambler) would not peril the interests of the Republican party by advocating a policy inimical to the success of the same

Willard agreed with Ambler and positively declared that this mistake of the Administration could not be fastened on the Republican party by any measure of expediency

This terminated the interview After their withdrawal the President and Secretary Fish decided that Granville's proposition was unacceptable and that we cannot recede from our case as presented at Geneva and a dispatch was telegraphed to Schenck to that effect

Suicide at Harrisburg.

ALBANY, May 7 —A man named Sydney Houston, living near Harrisburg, in this county, committed suicide yesterday morning by cutting his throat with a razor He had complained of being unwell and on the morning of the tragedy asked his wife if he would have time to look after his sheep before breakfast Being answered in the affirmative, he started for the pasture, and, not returning for some time, his wife went in quest of him She did not succeed in finding him, and a force of neighbors was sent for He was found in his pasture, with his throat cut and life nearly extinct He lived some hours after being found, but was entirely unconscious. He leaves a wife and a small family of children His father and several brothers reside in the county He was a well to-do farmer, and one of the earliest settlers

THE TERRITORIES

The I N L Mills at Unionville, Montana, were totally destroyed by fire on the night of the 20th of April Loss about $20 000, insurance, $8,000

The St Paul Pioneer of April 4th chronicles the arrival of General Sheridan in that city to consult with General Hancock in regard to the establishment of military posts along the line of the North Pacific road.

Water has been turned into the Hellgate and Avalanche Ditch near Canyon Ferry, and mining operations will soon begin Water will be abundant until late in the fall and a prosperous mining season is confidently anticipated.

The appearance of considerable bodies of Indians on both sides of the Missouri near Fort Benton, has caused the impression to get abroad that the Sioux are early sending their war parties out to depredate upon the exposed settlements of the frontier

Private advices from Bozeman state that half of the town people are out on the stampede to the reported gold fields "twenty miles away " Eastern Montana seems greatly excited over the rumored rich gold placers at Union Mills and in the country adjacent

Two of Montana's oldest and most prominent citizens are dead Andrew J Smith and Andrew Murray died at Bannack—the former on the 19th and the latter on the 20th of April Both located in Bannack in 1862 For many years Mr Smith was the only Republican member in the Montana Legislature and was familiarly known as the "Bannack Chief "

The citizens of Gallatin county Montana, having become tired of waiting for Government aid in suppressing Indian raids have held a meeting and passed the following resolution "That in the sense of this meeting, the raid into Gallatin Valley of July last, the murder of our fellow citizens, and the driving away of our stock was by the Crow Indians " A subscription paper was then circulated to raise means to pay citizen scouts to guard the passes to the valley, and it is proposed to make it at least red hot for the thieving Crows

A Fort Shaw correspondence to the Helena Gazette under date of the 15th instant, says that an escort of the Second Cavalry has arrived here from Fort Ellis, having in charge five prisoners who are on the way to the Stillwater Penitentiary Prominent among them are the two horse thieves who tried to get away with the horses which were presented to Colonel Baker by the citizens of Helena, for sending a good lot of the untutored Piegans to the happy hunting grounds " The same writer also says "The expedition which went to the Blackfoot Agency has returned The result of their labors was the destruction of two ranches by fire, and the arrest of two citizens "

Senator Wilson adds to his prophecy of a Republican success the encouraging fact that in 1840 he stated before the election how the States would stand and didn't miss one In 1844 he missed one, and again in 1868, and that the State of New York, because he didn't fully comprehend the counting power of Tammany Hall.

The Primaries and the Convention

More [illegible] was manifest in the Republican primaries yesterday than ever [illegible] to have been [illegible] from [illegible] Men who have [illegible] been [illegible] to take [illegible] numbers [illegible] as [illegible] friends [illegible] There was [illegible] ful attendance It was gratifying to observe that notwithstanding the activity [illegible] with which the respective tickets were [illegible] ported there was no acrimony or disorder Now that the primaries are over let the contest subside There should be no further personalities All Republicans must [illegible] together Conciliation toward all respectful and mutual toleration should be practised We believe the Republicans of Multnomah will now drop all the little differences that have arisen during the canvass preceding the primaries and work unitedly for a grand triumph in June In order that the best results may be brought about much depends on the action of the Convention next Saturday The Republican party of this county demand that tickets wholly unexceptionable shall be offered It should represent the character ability business and strength of the county The men selected for the Legislature should represent and be able to speak for the business and commercial interests of this county and this chief city of the State Such a ticket we trust to see put in the field Such a ticket will command the united support of the Republicans of the city and county, and be elected by a great majority Multnomah county and the city of Portland occupying so prominent a position should take a leading part in legislation and in the general affairs of the State We appeal to the Convention to nominate only the best men A ticket can be made which will command universal confidence, and which will add to the strength of the party here and in other counties as well There is great reason to hope that we shall elect our nominee for Congress A first rate county ticket here will contribute greatly to bring about this result Let us have such a ticket, and then let us roll up a majority here that will offset the Democratic majority east of the mountains

The Present Outlook

The chances that the Democratic party of the United States will accept Horace Greeley as their candidate already diminish The leaders of that party though they might be inclined to look to an alliance with Cincinnati as a means of dragging the party out of the slough of despond cannot bring the masses of the Democracy to ratify such a movement It may be indeed that an attempt will be made to push the Democratic column up to Greeley's support but the rank and file will desert by thousands In Oregon such a policy would be simply Democratic disbandment In all probability not more than one Democratic paper could be relied on to support the Cincinnati ticket even if that ticket should be accepted by the Democratic National Convention If we may judge from the telegraphic dispatches the weight of Democratic counsel at the East is decidedly against the acceptance of the Cincinnati ticket

What next, then? Can Greeley and Brown take enough Republicans away from the Philadelphia nominees to let the Democracy in? If those who have been holding a Convention at Cincinnati had any substantial reasons for disagreement with the Republican party, if they represented any deep moral convictions like those on which the faith of the anti slavery men was grounded when, by voting for Birney they defeated Clay, this movement might result in placing the Government in Democratic hands But there are none but the most petty reasons for the Cincinnati revolt. The people do not sympathize with it Those who would run the hazard of giving the Democratic party control of the Government, by supporting the irregular "side movement" at Cincinnati will be found too few to affect the result when the election comes on

Greeley Against Himself

Horace Greeley is being pretty roughly handled by the Republican press, which, not content with poking all sorts of fun at his idiosyncrasies, have taken to quoting from his writings, sentiments exactly opposite to those he now utters concerning the Administration One extract from an article written by Greeley last year is as follows

So far as we can judge, the Republicans are generally satisfied with General Grant's administration, and are inclined to renew his lease of power. If there is not much enthusiasm in his behalf, there is a very general conviction that he is a safe and prudent Executive Not hearing of any formidable or serious effort to prevent his renomination, it seems to us unwise in those who favor it to agitate the matter. The meeting of Congress next December is quite soon enough for that General Grant has not been quite two years in power During those two years many war clouds have loomed on the horizon yet peace with foreign nations and with Indian tribes has been happily preserved. The taxes have been largely reduced, yet two hundred millions of the national debt have been paid off and canceled, though we are paying one hundred and twenty millions per annum for pensions to the widows and orphans of our great struggle. We doubt whether any government ever before devoted so large a proportion of its annual income to the payment of debt He misunderstands human nature who fancies that these facts will not tell in a Presidential contest

It was reported a short time ago that the fare on the trans-continental railroad would shortly be raised T H Goodman, General Passenger Agent, states in the Sacramento Record that this is not the case The rate remains unchanged being $140 between California and New York

Oregon City has usually chosen Republicans in her municipal elections, but has occasionally chosen Democrats. A Democratic Mayor was elected at that place three or four years ago, and the same thing is repeated now. The result has no special political significance.

Says the New York World " Democrats will not vote for any Cincinnati candidate who may have made himself offensively conspicuous by virtue of assaults on the Democratic party " If Greeley isn't that man, who is?

Vermont Republicans held their Convention on the 1st inst and declared for Grant and Colfax

The Republican County Convention for Clatsop county was held at Astoria on Saturday the 4th inst , and the following ticket nominated For Representative, John West of Westport, Joint Representative Samuel Corwin of Tillamook Clerk, Col R R Spedden Sheriff W H Twilight, Commissioners, Chas A McGuire, S H Smith, Treasurer David Ingalls Assessor Wm. Chance, Supt Schools, Rev W A Tenney, Surveyor, Hayden Gearhart Coroner David E Pease The State Republican Platform, in all its parts was indorsed by the Convention The County Committee for the ensuing two years, is James Welch J F Saunders, Charles A McGuire, W W Parker and H Anderson The greatest unanimity prevailed in the Convention, and the satisfaction with the result is general.

LETTER FROM UNION COUNTY

COVE Oregon May 1 1872

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

SIR If the gentleman who [illegible] to the [illegible] of Oregon from the [illegible] pod of the Herald should [illegible] some of the Democratic primaries of Union county he might [illegible] Oregonians [illegible]

[illegible] working [illegible] servant [illegible]

[illegible] vote being [illegible] dozen and as [illegible] were there The meeting was called to order by placing Mr Mordecai Kennedy in the chair whereupon Mr A [illegible] Smith of the [illegible] position began to inflate and explain [illegible] charges of corruption against Mr Hendershott with much force and severity [illegible] ing all those heart [illegible] rumors which were belched forth from Salem during the last legislature until early [illegible] and for cheering [illegible] with hot indignation through our veins when we saw with the [illegible] that [illegible] the active Democrats of Union county Mr Hendershott alone had his adhesive palms [illegible] with a monopoly [illegible] There [illegible] will see [illegible] privileges to the few to the exclusion of the [illegible]

Mr Smith was a delegate to the Dalles Convention is one of our County Commissioners is a very sharp man and is probably sincere in believing Mr Hendershott to be a corrupt man And it is proper to say here that probably nine tenths of our people believed so too until the canvass opened since when he has certainly vindicated himself but to do so he had to tell of some terribly corrupt work on the part of other Democratic legislators whose names he withheld

After Mr Smith concluded Mr H replied with a speech substantially a reiteration of his former one, a synopsis of which I gave you

And said he I came back from Salem thoroughly disgusted with politics but when I found that I had been hounded down and my character tainted by men I have saved from the penitentiary and against whom I can prefer more charges than you can put in three pages of foolscap I determined to vindicate myself before the people

This the Herald would call first class harmony After a little more [illegible] and cooing of a similar harmonious character the meeting proceeded to biz by the selection of four candidates of a [illegible] to be voted for A proposition was made for each voter to come forward and enroll his name on either one side or the other but a democrat [illegible] instantly entered against a monstrously anti Democratic measure as of course it would necessitate the [illegible] of an [illegible] or [illegible]

The vote was then taken when upon counting it was found Mr Hendershott had forty votes to twenty nine against him A pretty good indorsement Since then we have heard from several other precincts which have instructed for Mr H —enough to insure his nomination

Before the primary meetings the opposition to Mr H claimed that when he (Mr H) called them liars, cowards and villains he thereby applied those endearing caresses to nine tenths of his party Either veracity was put to a severe test then or since, the party lash has been vigorously wielded At any rate the 'Liberals (bully name isn't it?) are in the minority and can now see the bright visions of plethoric pocket books vanish utterly and with thumbs in their mouths can

Fondly mourn the dear delusion gone

We intend to nominate a good Republican ticket next week and measure swords with the Democracy and if the people of Union county want to avoid such disgraceful political brawls, let them defeat the whole batch of officeseekers and elect men who are entirely free from such degrading aspersions as rest on all the Democratic aspirants—men who will keep sacred the school fund of the State no matter how much such a course might redound to the extermination of Democratic principles

But enough for this time Accept our congratulations for your success as evinced in the doubling of the OREGONIAN and thereby obviating the necessity of taking any Eastern journals May it never grow less

T T G

LATER—May 3d —At the Democratic Convention to-day the following persons were nominated For State Senator James Hendershott, Representative, O D Andrews Joint Representative Dunham Wright Sheriff A Warnick Clerk S M Black Treasurer, —— Baker Assessor T Tuttle Commissioners J Kennedy and J Childers Surveyor J L Curtis, Coroner G W Webb

The proceedings were so rich I shall have to defer a report until some future communication

T T G

From Clatsop County

ASTORIA May 6 1872

The Republican Convention of Clatsop county nominated on the 4th inst the following candidates Corwin of Tillamook for joint Representative John West Representative R R Spedden Clerk H W Twilight Sheriff David Ingalls Treasurer W Chance Assessor Sol Smith and Charles McGuire Commissioners, D E Pease Coroner Rev W A Tenney Superintendent of Schools

The announcement of the ticket produced a great depression among the Democrats who [illegible] est

The county tax has been trebbled in the two years that the Democrats have had charge of the finances

The Democratic Sheriff has a way of increasing county orders two per cent after receiving them for taxes He was also able to get $40 from the county on a bill which the State pays But not wishing to pay taxes he transfers his property to his wife but has it assessed in his own name and cancels it with his own indebtedness

The Democratic County Clerk has become so absent minded that papers left for record in his office are sometimes found in the street in the morning

Grover's Correctness

OREGON CITY May 6 1872

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Grover had his say here last Tuesday evening upon the Lock and Dam Swindle In giving the history of the 500,000 acre land grant he stated that the Democratic party being opposed to internal improvements by the National Government adopted this method of aiding the young States just struggling into existence

Now, history shows that this 500 000 acre land grant bill was passed by a Whig Congress, in the fall of 1841 Was it ignorance in Gov Grover, or was he wilfully trying to stuff his hearers in apologizing for this steal from the school fund of the State? In either event he is unfit for U S Senator

J C W

The Republicans of Columbia county, in Convention at St Helens on the 4th instant, nominated the following county ticket Representative E W Convers Clerk, G A Ladd Sheriff, M Pomeroy Treasurer, Joseph Copeland, Assessor, C Perine School Superintendent, S L Lovell Surveyor, J S Rynearson, Coroner, Dr C Capies J L Ladd was chosen as Chairman of the County Central Committee

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES

Some scholars are now discussing in the London [illegible] the formation of a new word [illegible] evidently a distinctive name is wanted for the kind of [illegible] in which correctly [illegible] are naturally [illegible] ablegram [illegible] are proposed

[illegible]

Our neighbors of Nevada are having a lively time over the struggle for the United States Senatorship The real issue is between the Bank of California and the miners The Bank wants Sharon their agent for Senator because his election will break up the Carson Mint which interferes with the refining business in San Francisco The miners want Jones because he is opposed to the banks monopoly of the refining business The bank is pending money freely for Sharon Jones having five or six millions of his own and a very popular man with all is beating the bank at its own game The fight is interesting and Jones is the winning trick

The New York Herald has on foot a model Presidential Convention to meet in New York on the 10th of May to be composed of the following organizations The National Labor party the International Workingmen's Association the Woman Suffrage party the Temperance party the Peace party the Spiritualists the Liberal or non Evangelical Christians the Free Religionists the Free Thinkers the Free Lovers the Land Reformers the Socialists the Communists the Positivists the Harmonialists etc All that is needed is a broad platform and a man to stand on it whose ideas have breadth without depth We would suggest that Jasper Johnson would make a good delegate from Oregon

Says the New York Herald There is no alternative offered the Democrats which does not involve the dissolution of their party General Grant is stronger than the public anywhere We have a letter from Pennsylvania which in defining the position of Colonel Forney shows that even a division of the Republican upon State politics and local rings will not affect the popular strength of Grant An attempt therefore to [illegible] the Democratic party in a bolting Republican party would probably carry over to Grant half the Democrats of the country before the end of the battle This danger will be avoided in the nomination of a regular Democratic ticket in due season With this event should there be a ticket from Cincinnati before the country it will disappear like the Cleveland ticket of Fremont and Cochrane or from deficiencies in recruits ammunition and transportation it will be reduced to a feeble guerrilla warfare of as little consequence in any State as that of the Labor Reformers and Temperance party in New Hampshire and Connecticut

PLANTATION BITTERS!

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates tropical, temperate or frigid it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Dolly Varden.

O Dolly—Dolly Varden
In a lady's form a garden,
That thou madly train'st to me
With a thousand vines or more!
Now its every turn discloses
Lilies, pinks and blushing roses,
Violets, forget-me-nots
Larkspurs, and I don't know whats,
All the colors of the year
In a single gown appear,
Flowers of every season,
In and out of reason,
All a single yard on
Hast thou, Dolly Varden.

Dolly, Dolly Varden
Still thy pranks we pardon,
For a very witching thing
Is the whimsy thou dost bring,
Every pretty maiden,
With thy wealth o'erladen,
Takes where'er she goes
Charm of added rose,
Spoil of all things fair,
Blooming everywhere.

Hail to thee! But pray put guard on
Those who can't, dear Dolly Varden.
Every human form divine
Can't be graced with flower and vine,
Bearing o'er its back quaint story
Traced in bloom of morning glory—
Every dame can't be a garden,
As thou know'st poor Dolly Varden.

Vainly Dolly Varden,
We our hearts would harden,
Witching one, new born of Spring,
Full of dainty blossoming,
Whether thou dost come in lawn,
Bright and misty as the dawn,
Calico that wakens choler
With its every yard a dollar
Or in softly rustling silk,
Wool, and fabrics of that ilk—
Still, thou'rt winsome, gay and fair,
Peerless past all base compare.
Let old fogies ask your pardon,
For paternal purse keep guard on,
Never more our hearts we'll harden;
You have conquered, Dolly Varden!

—Harper's Bazar.

Keeping a Postoffice.

From the earliest period of recollection I've had a desire to keep a Postoffice, or have the P. O. keep me; I didn't care a continental which. For years I have toiled for the "posish" of P. M., and last week I succeeded. But now I write after my name, ex-P. M.

I'll tell you how it came about. The Postmaster here resigned, and, with the aid of a graveyard recommendation, I succeeded him. It's nobody's business if I did rob the tombstones for names for my petition; and I can't see why the relatives of the defunct chaps won't quit throwing it up to a fellow.

Well, I wrote P. M. after my name. Mrs. Lipmuck embraced me with the tenderness of a she bear when I rushed into the room waving my petition over my head, and my appointment brought sundry other hugs. I was a happy man.

Mrs. L. and I sat up till midnight writing my name with P. M. after it. Oh, it looked grandly. I wouldn't have swapped it for Pres., L. L. D., or A. B. The next day I entered upon the discharge of my duties, and yesterday Uncle Samuel discharged me.

Immediately upon his successor (which was me) being qualified, the ex-P. M. left, and I was left alone. The mail came, and I distributed it thus wise. My motto has always been "First come first served," and I acted upon it to the best of my knowledge. I gave a letter to each caller as long as they lasted, and then I commenced on the papers.

Wife said the thing would act like a charm. Under the old regime some people never got a letter, while now the first person in the office, after the distribution of the mail, would get the biggest, fattest letter that came.

The idea was original, and I prided myself on its invention. The Lipmuck brain was ever fertile.

The morning following "mail day" I left my house for the Postoffice—the attainment of long cherished ambition. As I turned a corner I discovered two well known citizens about to test the virtue in clenched hands.

"I never wrote a letter to your wife," vociferated one.

"You lie!" yelled the other; "your letter yesterday was handed to me. My wife is in Birmingham, and wrote a sweet letter to you. Lipmuck's noble motto of 'First come first served,' placed it in my hands"—and a moment later at it they went.

I hurried on.

I had just entered the P. O., when a woman rushed into the building.

"You villain!" she yelled, knocking my hat to the floor, and burying her eagle talons in my hair. "You gave my letter to Mag F—tongue, the biggest old slanderer in town. And she's telling everywhere that I've been writing to a married man."

Well, I now can boast of as much hair as I could a week ago.

Scarcely had my persecutor left when a crowd rushed into the office. The Methodist preacher headed it. I think he swore as he crossed the threshold.

"Villain!" he yelled, "you gave Bird Lyre one of my letters, and he's blowing everywhere that I've got a wife in New York and another in Maine."

"Kill him! kill him!" yelled those behind him.

I saw a dozen fists and clubs nearing me, and I retreated.

"Hang the scoundrel!" cried the women, and I feared that the command would be executed.

I went through the window, and now I'm in another town.

I'm an ex-P. M. now, and a chap whose motto ain't "First come, first served" stands at the goal of my late ambition.

My brief P. M. ship has not been unproductive of [illegible]. That M. E. preacher has left his charge, and a New York woman is hauling him. Twenty-six divorces stare our next court in the face, and, through my brief official career, nine men walk on crutches, and four women have spoiled faces.

And I? Why, my cranium is hairless, and I dare not go back to Skull-town on pain of death.

My ambition is satiated now, and I have discharged that motto: "First come, first served." It don't work in a Postoffice.

I wouldn't be a P. M. again for all the benzine in the world.

CHICAGO REMINISCENCES.—The "Fat Contributor" has been in Chicago recently, and has written a letter to the Cincinnati Times and Chronicle. Among other things, he indulges in the following reminiscences:

"A block of stores will be erected the coming [illegible] where the old Tremont went down in the whirlpool of fire. There was probably no hotel in the West so well and so favorably known as the old Tremont. Guests were made to feel at home there. A great many traveling men never stopped at any other hotel in Chicago for years, and couldn't be hired to. It was long the home of Hon. John Wentworth—Long John, they call him. His tall form was very familiar there. I don't know where he hangs up now. He mourned the destruction of the Tremont very much, and said he felt like going to his long (John) home. Frank Lumbard, the singist, is still unhappy [illegible] the Tremont saloon is no more. There is no good place for him to sing now, when he feels like singing loud. Some of the most distinguished men in the country have spent an evening there, just to hear Lu[illegible] and his famous glee club sing. The club has broken up since the fire. Frank says he hasn't any glee left, but he thinks he does deserve a club."

A MUCH ABUSED OFFICER.—In a late session of the naval investigation at Washington, according to the correspondence of the New York Tribune, Congressman Sargent called Secretary Robeson's attention to the statement in the New York Sun that he had made a great deal of money since he came into the department. Robeson replied that he is not worth as much to-day as when he came in; that he has never made a dollar beyond his salary since he came in, and that he has spent his salary, his private income and a little more during his administration of the Navy Department. Secretary Robeson said, in view of the fact that no charge of corruption had been proved against him in this investigation, but on the contrary each charge had been followed up and shown to be false by the mouths of witnesses cognizant of the transactions, he had a right to expect from the committee and every honest man, whatever might be their differences of opinion, as complete a vindication as the charges against him had been gross and outrageous.

General Carter brought to the military re-union at Detroit the table on which Generals Grant and Lee signed the capitulation of the latter.

PICKINGS.

An interesting political wager has just been concluded between J. G. Bennett, Jr., and Mr. Belmont. Bennett bets ten thousand dollars to four that General Grant will be the next President.

Josh Billings says the difference between a blunder and a mistake is this: When a man puts down a bad umbrella and takes up a good one, he makes a mistake; but when he puts down a good one and takes up a bad one, he makes a blunder.

"Young man, do you ever drink?" asked a [illegible], according to Jones. "Well, yes, thank you, as it's a cold morning I don't mind," replied Jones, removing his [illegible]. "I [illegible] don't do it any more," rejoined the old man, "for you will eventually be damned. Good morning. God bless you."

A corpulent old lady: "I should like a ticket for the train." Booking clerk (who thinks he will make a joke): "Yes'm; will you go on the passenger train or in the cattle train?" Lady: "Well, if you are a specimen of what I shall experience in the passenger train, give me a ticket for the cattle train, by all means."

Henry Ward Beecher says: "I consider myself Calvinistic you know, and in this way: I believe what John Calvin would have believed if he had lived in my time and seen things as I see them. My first desire is to know what is true, and then I am glad if John Calvin agrees with me, but if he don't, so much the worse for him."

No wonder the people of Boston get somewhat excited on the subject of adulterated milk. One of their wise men, and everybody knows they have many such, has discovered that milk as furnished by the cow has 87 per cent. of water, and that the milk men add 33 per cent more. This he says makes 120 per cent. water, or produces a fluid 20 per cent. weaker than that that comes from the aqueduct.

The Jewish Race.

The Allegemeine Zeitung gives some interesting particulars as to the dispersion of the Jews over the world. In Palestine, they have long been reduced to a very small proportion of their former numbers. They are now most numerous in the northern part of Africa, between Morocco and Egypt, (where especially in the Barbary States, they form the chief element of the population) and in that strip of Europe, which extends from the Lower Danube to the Baltic. In the latter region there are about 4,000,000 Jews, most of whom are of the middle class among the Slavonic nationalities, while in the whole of Western Europe there are not 100,000 of them. In consequence of European migrations, descendants of these Jews have settled in America and Australia where they are already multiplying in the large commercial towns in the same manner as in Europe, and much more rapidly than the Christian population. The Jewish settlers in Northern Africa are also increasing so much that they are constantly spreading farther to the South. Timbuctoo, has, since 1858, been inhabited by a Jewish colony of traders. The other Jews in Africa are the Falasches or Abyssinian black Jews, and a few European Jews at the Cape of Good Hope. There are numerous Jewish colonies in Yemen and Nedschran, in Western Arabia. It has long been known that there are Jews in Persia, and countries on the Euphrates, in the Turcoman countries they inhabit the four fortresses of Scherizebs, Kitab Schamatan and Urta Kungan, and thirty small villages residing in a separate quarter, but treated on an equal footing with the other inhabitants, though they have to pay higher taxes. There are also Jews in China and in Cochin China; there are both white and black Jews. The white Jews have a tradition, according to which in the year 70 A. D. their ancestors were 10,000 Jews who settled in Crangamore on the coast of Malabar, after the destruction of the Temple of Jerusalem. The Jews remained at Crangamore until 1655, when they were driven into the interior by the Portugese. The black settlers are supposed to be native proselytes, and have a special synagogue of their own.

Practice vs. Precept.

Resolved, 1. That we, the Democratic party of the State of Oregon, are pledged to a strict construction of the Constitution.

Then why violate it in not re-apportioning the members of the Legislature after the census of 1869, and in creating new offices and salaries?

2. That we are opposed to every species of corruption in all departments of the municipal, State and National Governments.

Then why pay $200,000 to one company for doing a work that another company offered to do for $125,000?

3. That our motto is, no privileged classes and no privileged capital.

Then why compel persons to patronize "litigant organs," when they could get the work done for half the sum somewhere else.—State Journal.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

TUESDAY EVENING, May 7, 1872.

Gold in New York to-day, 113.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 89c buying; 90c selling.

Wheat in Liverpool, 12s 2d@12s 5d.

Money in San Francisco is less abundant for business purposes, owing to the immense amounts withdrawn from the banks and invested in stocks.

The steamer Idaho from San Francisco may be expected to-day. She will sail on Saturday.

In the Wheat market the prices demanded by holders are still above the views of buyers. Consequently there are no sales to note. Flour is firm, but prices are without change.

No explanation of the Iron famine seems to be entirely satisfactory. Free traders would attribute it to the tariff, but English iron of most sorts is cheaper than American in the market. Railroad iron of English manufacture can be had from $10 to $12 a ton cheaper than American. The furnaces of the United States are now equal to the production of 2,000,000 tons per annum. The capacity and production can be immeasurably increased. But the consumption of Iron for all purposes has now reached an extent which once would have been inconceivable. It is estimated that the demand for railroads this year will reach 680,000 tons. For building purposes the consumption of Iron is becoming enormous. It is used for the construction of whole buildings, for columns, for arches, for bridges, for ships, for massive machinery and for every possible purpose. So many new uses have been found for Iron that consumption has outrun production.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT PORTLAND, MARCH 2[illegible], 1872.

The Union Republican party of Oregon, in Convention, makes this declaration of its principles and policies:

1. To the Constitution of the United States and all its amendments we pledge our unfaltering allegiance; to its authority a willing obedience; to its full and legal construction and enforcement our constant support.

2. That the success of the present National Administration in reducing the public debt, diminishing and equalizing taxation, administering every branch of public affairs with economy and efficiency, reforming and improving the civil service, enforcing the laws without fear or favor, protecting the nation's wards with paternal care against the cruel avarice of speculation and fraud, and maintaining friendly relations with Foreign Powers, has been such as to command the approbation of the great majority of the American people, and justly entitle it to the confidence and commendation of every true Republican.

3. We regard the payment of our national debt, in full compliance with all legal obligations to all our creditors everywhere, and in accordance with the true letter and spirit of its contracting, as no longer a question at issue, but that we may be clearly understood, we denounce all forms and degrees of repudiation of that debt, as affirmed by the Democratic party and its sympathizers, as not only national calamities, but positive crimes, and we will never consent to a suspicion of lack of honor or justice in its complete satisfaction.

4. We admit of no distinctions between citizens, whether of native or foreign birth; and therefore we favor the granting of full amnesty to the people of those States lately in rebellion, and we here pledge the full and effective protection of our civil laws to all persons naturally coming to or residing in our land.

5. We favor the encouragement of railroads by the General Government of the United States, and hold that such disposition should be made of the public lands as shall secure the same to actual settlers only, in quantities not exceeding 160 acres.

6. That while we are in favor of a revenue for the support of the General Government, by duties upon imports, sound policy requires such adjustment of these duties on imports as to encourage the development of the industrial interest of the whole country, and we recommend that policy of national exchange which secures to the working men liberal wages, to agriculture remunerative prices, to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill, labor and enterprise, and to the Nation commercial prosperity and independence.

7. We believe that popular education is the sole true basis and hope of a free government, and shall ever oppose any diversion of, or interference with the common school funds or lands in this State, for any other than their legitimate purpose, and we condemn the act of favoritism by the last Legislature whereby two hundred thousand dollars, taken from the school fund, were granted to a corporation consisting mainly of Democratic leaders and party favorites, for the construction of a work which another corporation, entirely sound and responsible, offered to construct for seventy five thousand dollars less; and that we are in favor of the passage by the Legislature of an efficient school law, such as shall secure to all citizens of our State a good common school education.

8. We find no terms sufficiently strong to express our disapproval of those acts of the last Legislature whereby the swamp lands belonging to the State have been taken from the needy settlers, and given without limit or proper competition to private land grabber and speculator; whereby the emoluments and salaries of State officers have been unconstitutionally increased, and the taxes increased thousands of dollars by the creation of new and unnecessary offices and salaries, for the purpose of providing for party favorites, and whereby the citizens of our metropolis have been deprived of and denied the right of controlling their police authority. And we equally condemn the administration of our State officers and laws as extravagant, reckless, illegal and destructive, and we rightfully charge all these results as the acts of the Democratic party.

9. We are in favor of the United States giving to each honorably discharged soldier who served in the armies of the United States to put down the rebellion a warrant for a homestead of 160 acres of public lands.

10. That we demand the repeal of the so called [illegible] gant act, which was devised to support [illegible] Democratic newspapers at the public expense.

11. That the Republican party of this State are in favor of the General Government extending aid toward building a railroad from Portland, Oregon, to Salt Lake City, and from Jackson county to Humboldt, and we hereby pledge our party representatives to the support of the same.

12. That the indiscriminate [illegible] of poison to sell spirituous liquors without being placed under proper responsibilities for the abuse thereof, having been found by experience to promote the growth of crime and pauperism, and thereby to seriously increase the rate of taxation, the Republican party recognizes the right and duty of the law making power to prevent and limit the evils and abuses of such sale, so far as concerns the public good and is consistent with individual liberty, by refusing to license other than law-abiding and responsible persons, who can furnish sufficient sureties for good conduct.

13. That the Republican party of Oregon is in favor of obtaining assistance from the General Government for the construction of a wagon road from the city of Portland to the Dalles, recognizing this as a most important and necessary improvement for the State.

14. We affirm that the continuance in power of the Republican party is the only sure preservation of national peace and prosperity, and for reasons therefor we point to its brilliant record in the late civil war, the complete nationality, to a united sisterhood of thirty-seven States; to our Territories rapidly warming into State life; to a nation freed from the taint of human slavery; to an elevated and enlarged citizenship, to our national standing at home and abroad, to the work of vigorous reform in all discovered abuses of authority or trust, to an unequaled foreign credit, to a successful and a full financial system, and to the universal and settled peace and prosperity everywhere in our broad domain, and these are our pledges for the future.

15. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their conventions in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years, and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

To the Land Agent of the European and Oregon Land Company:

Sir: You are hereby notified that I have settled upon and improved (description of land) in the county of ——, State of Oregon, containing —— acres, and that I claim a pre-emption right to purchase said lands at the Company's valuation in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company, adopted on the twenty sixth day of May, A. D. 1871, to the terms of which I hereby fully assent:

"Resolved, That the parties settling upon and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company, before the same are opened for market, shall be entitled to the pre-emption privilege of purchase in the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement, and shall be subject to the same conditions of payment, as all other lands belonging to the Company when brought into market, provided, such settlers shall file in the Land office of said Company, written application, giving notice of such settlement, and shall accept the privilege upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed, notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent, through the Postoffice, or otherwise as may be convenient, to the residence of the party claiming the pre-emption privilege, and if the land is not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person."

This is to certify that ———, of ——— county, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office a pre-emption claim to certain lands, and is hereby entitled to the first privilege of purchasing said land at the Company's valuation, which is to be made without reference to improvements when the same shall be placed in market in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors of said Company, adopted May 26, A. D. 1871.

When the price of the above-described land is fixed, notice thereof will be sent to the party to whom this Certificate is issued, and if the land is not purchased by the said party or the holder hereof within sixty days from the date of said notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.
